

Consulate General of Pakistan,
Toronto

Workshop in Milton
Online Machine Readable Passports (MRPs) and Smart NICOPs Applications

PRESS RELEASE

In partnership with MinMaxx, the Consulate General of Pakistan, Toronto is organizing a Workshop on “Machine Readable Passports (MRPs) and Smart NICOPs Online Procedures” on Wednesday, 15 February 2017 at MinMaxx, Milton Arts Centre from 1800-2100 hours. The workshop will cover:

- Overview of online NADRA and Machine Readable Passports (MRPs) application process.
- Account creation.
- NADRA & MRPs online application types.
- Fee submission procedure.
- Documentation required during the process.
- Finger prints and photo capture module.
- Final application data review and submission.
- Online application processing time.
- Question and answers regarding online application process.

Pakistanis/Pakistan origin Canadians living in or around Milton are requested to benefit from this workshop.

Toronto
27 January 2017