Christmas Celebrated at the Consulate General of Pakistan, Toronto

The Consulate General of Pakistan organized Christmas celebrations at the Mission in partnership with local Pakistani Christian organizations. The event was attended, inter alia, by prominent Canadians including Senator Salma Atallahjan, Hon. Salma Zahid, MP, Hon. Garnett Genius, MP, Hon. Shafiq Qadri, MPP. The speakers underscored that the message of Christmas was love, affection, kindness and other human values.

The Consul General in his address recalled the role of Pakistani Christians in the making and then strengthening of Pakistan in line with Quaid-e-Azam's vision. He expressed the hope that the Christian brothers and sisters will continue to play their role in promoting progress and prosperity of Pakistan.
